INTRO

The diary of the infamous pirate captain Redbeard has been found. According to legend he hid his vast treasure so well that even when he was defeated his enemies didn't manage to find it. As you look at the diary your eyes fall on a curious little poem.

"White as snow, you can have me cold or hot, all children need me a lot". Sounds a bit like... a riddle!! Could the answer lead us to the location of the hidden treasure??

Did you guess the answer? Lets go and see!!

END OF STORY

Congratulations Junior Detectives! You found Redbeard's treasure!

After playing and running all day, there is one place to go to wash the dirt away

#1 What am I?

I got four big holes but you still put me on, I may be colorful or plain and my arms are gone

#2 What am I?

I am a substance, which keeps objects together, I stick between them and bind them forever

#3 What am I?

When you bite me I go 'CRUNCH', I'm a really tough guy, green or red, sour or sweet, I'm a healthy snack to eat

#4 What am I?

Some of us love to run, some prefer climbing, all of us walk the street, put us on your feet

#5 What am I?

What do you do when you don't have a hose? How will your green friends gain their powers? just fill me up and give them some showers

#6 What am I?

If your eyes are blurry we help you see, we have arms but no legs, what could we be?

#7 What am I?

My legs are round, I don't walk, I roll, be careful when you ride me or you'll fall

#8 What am I?

Soft and comfy I help you relax, sit on my cushions and have some snacks

#9 What am I?

I'm a breakfast hero, thanks to me it has a crunchy feeling, treat me gently, if I get mad, you'll find your breakfast on the ceiling!

#10 What am I?

We live inside the house
the outside we never meet, a fluffy pair of guys for your feet

What am I?

#11

I hang on the wall, on a rail I slide, get behind me in order to hide

What am I?

#12

Spread your books upon me,
your pencils and your pens,
let me help you study and learning never ends

What am I?

#13
